

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear violation of federal election laws and FCC rules; their flimsy justification that this propagandistic campaign ad is somehow "news" and therefore exempt from legislation that governs partisan political commentary by public broadcasting stations is absurd even on its face.

What will it take for you to make a move to block this violation of the public trust? You certainly moved quickly to condemn an inadvertent breast-baring. How about moving just as quickly to condemn a blatant disregard for FCC regulations and federal law?
